EASTER SERVICE

A big well done to all the children this morning for their amazing performances in the Easter Service, it was a true celebration. We were accompanied by Rev Katrina, families and guests from our local community. It was Rev Katrina's first school service and we look forward to welcoming her in the future.

Happy Easter!

See you back on Monday 15th April.

As part of the Easter service, Otter Class performed a collaborative poem, telling the Easter story. This is the artwork which complemented their poetry

Well done Squirrels on raising an impressive £100 from their cake sale!

WOW! What impressive entries for the Easter egg decorating competition. Well done everyone for taking part. There were categories for each of the classes including one for pre-school and the adults! The judging was carried out with entrants' names hidden and it was a tough competition but the winners were:

Pre-school - Merve
Reception - Joshy
Year 1 - Matilda
Year 2 - Olivia
Year 3 - Finley
Year 4 - Eleanor B
Year 5 - Ivy D
Year 6 - Arthur
Adults - Martha

KS1 Longleat Trip

KS1 were really lucky to have a trip to Longleat yesterday. Hedgehogs took part in a minibeast workshop, whilst Foxes explored some of the sites. We then swapped, so Foxes could find out about animal conservation, whilst Hedgehogs got to see the sea lions on the boat. We then had a shared lunch and enjoyed the safari before heading home after a very busy day!
