

East Harptree C of E Primary School Newsletter 25

Friday 25th March 2022

Otters had a superb day finding local landmarks on OS maps, learning about our waterways and what we can do to protect them and fun activities down by the riverside. Huge thank you to Bristol and Avon River Trust for enabling it to happen.

Family Theatre: Gulliver's Travels – Journeys of a Bookworm

Sunday, 24th April 2022, 2.30pm

Calling all 5-11s! Make your Sunday whizz by! Fly to the stars with a musical 'Space Medley'. Dance and singalong to the Birdie Song and tuck in with Gulliver at 'A' for "Anglo Saxon" on a 'tasty' adventure of encyclopedic discovery to come out at 'Z' all the wiser. Wild Words brings its latest globetrotting family

show to Cedars Hall, led by storyteller
Michael Loader with musicians Martin
Solomon and Lizzie Tucker.

Create a new page in our Encyclopedia in the pre-show Playshop and bring a percussion instrument to play. All children must also bring an adult with them.

CEDARS HALL

PARKING - Please park considerately in the pub car park and be aware that from April, renovation works to the church will mean there won't be parking in the three spaces by the church. Walk, scoot or catch the bus if you can. Thank you.

Chew Valley Friends of Cancer Research UK - Safari Supper Saturday 11th June

The East Harptree Safari Supper is back this year, raising funds for Cancer Research and giving you the chance to meet people from the village and have a peek inside their houses too.

You can choose to host a course for a reduced entry fee or to simply take part, gathering for drinks, travelling to a different home for each of 3 courses, and meeting up for coffee at the end.

For more information, email Laura@cannonspace.com or collect a flyer from EH Village shop. Last entries, 7th May.
