

East Harptree C of E Primary School Newsletter 28

Friday 29th April 2022

Congratulations to our Stars of the Week!

Another Jubilee Tree!

Thank you to Rory and Arlo Melton and their family for planting a tree for the Queen's Jubilee adjacent to Smithams Hill in East Harptree.

The tree was given to the school by BANES as part of the Queen's Canopy initiative but we didn't have anywhere suitable to plant it on the school site.

This tree is in addition to the oak tree planted by the School Council last term in the field behind the Church in conjunction with members of EH Environment Group.

Messy Church Fun

On Monday 9th May volunteers from St Laurence's Church will be running a Messy Church session after school for one hour with Mrs Banks. The theme is "Friendship" and the children will do a craft and have a drink and snack. There is no charge but you must reply to the letter sent out by 4th May to book a space.

THE ANNUAL VILLAGE MEETING!

(East Harptree & Coley)

Saturday 7th May - 6pm at the Theatre.

NOT a Parish Council Meeting!
NOT another boring meeting!

This is a get together of the village for the Village!

From 5pm: It's an opportunity to enjoy some chat, music, displays and free refreshments! Then at 6pm groups or individuals can share information, say a few words about what they've been doing, all the exciting projects, or raise any issues that are of relevance to East Harptree Parish.

Please let the Parish Clerk know if you'd like something included on the agenda (by 26th April). Items can be added up to the time of the meeting itself, any resident can put something pertinent on the agenda that they'd like to speak about or seek the views of other residents.

So far, the following will be involved:

- East Harptree Environment Group
- Jubilee Street Party planning
- Safer Routes to School
- EHPC Electric Car Charge Point discussion
- East Harptree Village Hall & Playing Field Committee
- East Harptree Parish Council Chair's report for 2021-2022

We also need help please! Let Sarah-Jane know if you can assist with serving the refreshments or provide a cake. Thank you!

Please email offers of help to parish.clerk@eastharptreeparish.org
